Casa Garcia (Molera) (CAL-148)

History: Erected 1848-50 by a German carpenter for Francisco Garcia for $18,000. Garcia was Judge at San Felicano 1845-46 and a landowner. Became property of A. Rosales and then owned for many years by Andrew J. Molera and his heirs. In 1868 a J. Santos operated a hotel here, called Bay View House.

Description: Large two-story chalk-stone building with adobe additions. Dressed stone laid up ashlar pattern at street front and rough ashlar at other three sides. Flat arch stone window and door heads with keystone. Gable end roof with little overhang. Lean-to additions of adobe.
